Hello, my name is Lila Kemlo, from the Learning Skills Unit, in the Business Portfolio in Building 108.

What you are going to hear on this video are some key hints and tips about your learning and studying requirements in the first 4 weeks at RMIT.

I will be covering: what it really means to be an independent learner, how you manage your learning, how you make the most out of your lectures and tutorials, and what your responsibilities are as a tertiary student.

So let's start with independent learning.
